Playschool Nursery - 22150296

NEWSLETTER OCTOBER-DECEMBER 2007

Dear Parents,

We start this Newsletter with some very good news

Congratulations to our Shining Stars Dia, Kashish and Ariyaan who have been with us since Playschool, for getting into J B Petit High School and Campion. They have done us proud. We will miss them!

Mr. Yamamoto of the Colouring Book Museum has written for the article titled 'Journey of the Colouring Book' on his travels around the world. He visited Early Birds as a leading play school and nursery to observe and interact with the children and collect information regarding the concept of colouring in India.

Outings and Events for this quarter -

Fruit Day 1st October

We had fruit day on 1st October. It was a very fruitful day! For the nursery section Vansh and Perseus's mom came in with lots of fruits to show the children. Perseus's mom made delicious custard and fruit salad which everyone relished. Vansh's mom made sweet lime juice in a real juicer.

The children were shown the fruits and they assisted Vansh's mom in making the juice which greatly fascinated them. The lovely session ended with yummy fruit salad and juice.

Flower Day 4th October

We had flower day in Thursday 4th October. Early Birds had turned into a garden! A lovely floral fragrance filled the air.

A big Thank You to Skye, Shiva, Aditya, Sidh, Jeh, Jehan, Pranaya and Avantika's Mamas! Who brought in beautiful flowers, gajras, and garlands for the children.

Daddy's Day – 30th November

"Chak De Early Birds!" Enthusiastic parents came for Daddy's Day out at the Oval Maidan to play cricket. They played cricket with their children. We had a cricket match of 5 overs each amongst the fathers, the Man of the Match was Sidh's father, the best bowler was Tia's dad and the best Batsman was Amir's dad! The children and parents got participation medals.

Beach - Friday 7th December

Clear blue skies and warm sand welcome the children at the beach. They ran excitedly with their beach toys to try and make sand castles. The splashing of the waves made the children go closer towards the sea to collect the shells which they took home proudly with them.

Christmas Party – 14th December

We brought in the festive season with great merriment and fun with all the Christmas trimmings, a beautifully decorated Christmas tree, a moonwalker, a bouncer, a ball pool and our very own "Rocking Santa" (Roxana aunty) spreading Christmas cheer!

If you see little reindeers running around Mumbai know that they have flown from Early Birds!

Wishing all the children, parents and relatives of a Very Happy and Prosperous 2008!

Early Birds

Crawford Market – 5th October

To market, to market, to look at the fruits, veg and flowers. The Early Birds family there in full force.

Apart from the regular fruits the fruit vendor showed us avocados, amraphal, kiwi, musk melon and jackfruit. We walked to the vegetable vendor who showed us all the vegetables from ladyfinger, baby corn mushrooms to spinach, sweet potato, beetroot and yam.

The field trip ended at the florist, where we saw and smelled the different types of flowers from orchids, wild lilies, African daisies, Chrysanthemums, Carnations roses.

Cobbler Day – 8th October

We started the day with cobbler songs like "mochi aaya", "cobbler cobbler". The cobbler came in with all his equipments. He first showed the children how he polished shoes, which the kids imitated. He also stitched up a torn sandal. The kids were most excited to see a cobbler at school!

Tailor Day – 9th October

Anisha aunty was the tailor for the day, who stitched a torn t-shirt brought by Sidh. She also took measurements of the children, who were most keen to know their sizes.

Carpenter Day – 10th October

The carpenter visited school with all his equipments. He brought along his saw, hammer, screwdriver, nails, screws, wooden plank, pliers and wood-shaver. The children very enthusiastically watched him shave the wood; they also enjoyed imitating the carpenter hammering the nail.

Doctor's Day – 15th October

Paediatric Doctor Mukesh Sancklecha had come to school today! He showed us his medical instruments the stethoscope, thermometer, spatula, bandages, torch (to see our tonsils) and medicines. He filled medicines in a syringe. The doctor gave us some good tips to make injections less painfull and gave us good tips on hygiene.

Beauty Parlour Day – 16th October

We had a relaxing beauty parlour day with Pooja aunty, which started with an oil massage. Pooja aunty gave the children a head massage and our Tivona also wanted her shoulders massaged. Sidh and Aditya Sinha enjoyed a blow dry. Aunty also showed us the many equipments used at the parlour. The blow dryer, scissors, comb, creams for massaging, shampoos, conditioners etc. the children enjoyed a hand massage and also massaged their teachers hands. Later Jaanam aunty gave the girls hair accessories.

Dentists Day – 17th October

The dentist Dr. Harsh Vyas came to school with his laptop and showed the children an animated movie, where we saw how important healthy teeth are. We saw "Dhondu the Bhondu" the monkey who did not take care of his teeth and Mr. Kida the tooth monster.

The doctor gave us these tips to take care of our teeth like eating lots of fruits and vegetables and brushing our teeth twice a day. With at least ten strokes!

Dr. Vyas gave us a star sticker some homework to do with mom and a stamp. Yippeel!
